

Riviera Travel Cookie Policy

What is a cookie?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your computer or other device when visiting certain website pages. They can't harm your computer and don't store personally identifiable information such as credit card details.

How we use cookies

We use the encrypted information gathered from cookies to ensure the website operates effectively technically and to help improve your experience on the Riviera Travel website. We collect for example anonymous and non-personal browsing information on the habits of our customers, including pages viewed. We have relationships with carefully-selected partners such as search engines, who may also set cookies during your visit.

Managing cookies

To make full use of the Riviera Travel website requires the use of cookies to be enabled. Should you wish to disable cookies however, you'll still be able to browse the site and use it for research purposes.
